FAMILY VIOLENCE ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

[with Certificate of Defendant's Military Service]

If you are convicted of a misdemeanor offense involving violence where you are or were a spouse, intimate partner, parent, or guardian of the victim, or are or were involved in another, similar relationship with the victim, it may be unlawful for you to possess or purchase a firearm, including a handgun or long gun, or ammunition, pursuant to federal law under 18 U.S.C. Section 922 (g) (9) or Section 46.04 (b) Texas Penal Code. If you have any questions whether these laws make it illegal for you to possess or purchase a firearm, you should consult an attorney.

I acknowledge that 1) I have read and understand the statements above, 2) I have been advised that if a family violence or dating violence finding is made, if I am charged with a crime in the future in which family violence or dating violence is alleged, the State may prosecute that offense as a felony and, if I am convicted of that offense, I could be sentenced as a felon, and 3) I would be prohibited from possessing or transferring any type of firearm or ammunition.

Are you a member of a state military force, or serving in the armed forces of the United States in an active-duty status?
