SPONSORSHIP - UNDER AGE 18

The party signing as sponsor approves the issuance of an instruction permit and assumes the financial liability for the negligent acts of the designated minor arising from the operation of a motor vehicle (Sections 39-06-04, 39-06-08 and 39-06-09, North Dakota Century Code (NDCC)). The sponsorship shall be signed by the father, mother, or legal guardian (guardianship papers required). If the father, mother, or legal guardian is unable to appear, they may designate, through a notarized document, an individual temporarily authorized to sign; financial liability remains with the father, mother, or legal guardian. If there is no living parent or legal guardian, another adult swearing responsibility for the minor may sign the sponsorship. This sponsorship is valid for all subsequent permits and licenses of the minor unless canceled by the sponsor. A sponsor may cancel by filing with the director a verified written request that the permit or license of the minor so granted be canceled (Section 39-06-11 NDCC).
