

Individual Home Study Questionnaire

(This information will be completed individually by each applicant)

Applicant: _____

Personal History

Current information regarding your parents (occupation, date of birth, residence, relationship history, how they handled conflict, etc.).

Sibling information (name, date of birth, residence, quality of sibling relationship, current level of contact, etc.).

Describe your family life experience during childhood (include information on your parent's discipline style, positive reinforcement, family activities, good/sad memories).

Describe your teenage and young adult years (include information about school experiences and transitioning to independent living).

Describe any significant relationships you have had in your life (including marriages).

Describe any significant trauma, losses, and/or successes you have experienced.

Discuss your physical, mental, and emotional health.

Discuss your overall life experience (including issues related to abuse, fertility, grief-and-loss, or family discord).

Discuss your hobbies, talents, and goals for the future.

How would you describe yourself?

Personal Characteristics and Resilience

Discuss relationships with others (including quality of relationship and your ability to communicate with others).

Discuss your ability to express and process emotions.

Discuss your ability to tolerate others, willingness to help others, and ability to set aside your own needs.

Discuss your ability to deal with stressful situations (including what causes you stress and specific strategies to cope with stress).

Discuss your ability to adjust to the unexpected or unknown.

Discuss your ability to make and keep commitments.