

UST Compatibility with Hazardous Substance

Title 23, California Code of Regulations, Section 2631 (I), 2712b)(5)

All components of the UST system that may come into contact with the substance stored must demonstrate compatibility including but are not limited to, spill containers, overfill prevention equipment, and ancillary equipment including sensors. Documents demonstrating compatibility must be provided as part of the application for a UST operating permit and must be retained by the UST owner or operator for as long as the UST stores that specific substance.

Facility Name:		Tank Owner:
Facility Address:		Tank Owner Address:
Contact Name:		Email:	Phone:
Tank	Capacity	List Hazardous Substances to be stored
1
2
3
Tank Manufacturer Information
☐ Check if UST manufacturer information applies to all new tanks to be installed
Tank Manufacturer		Model no.	Info listed on SWRCB website ☐
UST Components Manufacturer Information
Component	Manufacturer	Model no	Info listed on SWRCB website
Piping			☐
Flex piping braided metal			☐
Sumps			☐
UDCs			☐
Spill buckets			☐
Overfill Equipment/device			☐
Other:			☐
Compatibility may be demonstrated through a written approval from: - Independent testing organization - California registered professional engineer - Manufacturer of the component The approval must indicate that the components are compatible with the specific substance to be stored
Print Name		Title
Signature		Date	